

IRISH REP GALA 2026

LERNER AND LOEWE'S

MY FAIR LADY

IN CONCERT

MONDAY, JUNE 8

THE TOWN HALL | 123 West 43rd Street, New York

BRYANT PARK GRILL | 25 West 40th Street, New York

Irish Repertory Theatre invites you to its annual Gala Benefit, featuring a one-night-only concert presentation of the musical masterpiece Lerner and Loewe's My Fair Lady. Featuring beloved songs including "I Could Have Danced All Night," "Get Me to the Church on Time," and "On the Street Where You Live," this special occasion offers the rare pleasure of experiencing this legendary musical score, performed by an extraordinary company of Broadway stars accompanied by a full orchestra and chorus.

Join us as our community of artists and audiences come together for this festive celebration of Shaw's iconic, Irish wit and Lerner & Loewe's unforgettable score, all in support of Irish Repertory Theatre.

The evening's program will feature a star-studded cast directed by Charlotte Moore & Ciarán O'Reilly with musical direction by Maestro John Bell. The evening will include the presentation of Irish Rep's Visionary Leadership Award to Melissa Vogel Brown.

As Irish Rep's most significant fundraiser of the year, the evening offers multiple ways to participate. No matter how you choose to take part, your support helps sustain Irish Repertory Theatre and our mission to bring outstanding Irish and Irish-American theatre to Off-Broadway audiences.

ABOUT THE IRISH REPERTORY THEATRE

Founded 37 years ago by Charlotte Moore and Ciarán O'Reilly, Irish Repertory Theatre was created to illuminate the contemporary Irish and Irish-American experience through evocative works of theatre, music, and dance.

Today, Irish Rep is a leading destination for distinctive Off-Broadway productions and remains the only year-round professional theatre company in New York City dedicated to bringing Irish and Irish-American stories to the stage. Its award-winning programming spans beloved classics by Irish and Irish-American playwrights, compelling new works exploring the Irish and Irish-American experience, and plays from other cultures presented through an Irish sensibility.

MELISSA VOGEL BROWN
Managing Director | GOLDMAN SACHS

Melissa Vogel Brown serves as Associate General Counsel and Managing Director at Goldman Sachs where she has worked for fifteen years and today is co-leading its Global Markets FICC legal team for the Americas. She started her legal career at Cleary Gottlieb in NY and London, and then moved to senior roles, first at JPMorgan then at UBS. But long before international responsibilities and conference tables, this daughter of two working actors was an integral part of Irish Repertory Theatre. She watched her mother, the late, great, Olivier Award-winning actress Pauline Flanagan perform in the Rep's inaugural season and joined its early Board of Directors. Since then, she has served in a variety of capacities at the Rep and has been instrumental in helping to formalize the governance and financial structures that allowed the organization to grow with confidence during and after her board tenure. Over the years, Melissa has focused her pro bono efforts on advancing civil liberties and supporting NJ LEEP, which guides underrepresented students toward college and legal careers, while remaining one of Irish Rep's most steadfast supporters.
